documenting the living in a babylon

September 11, 1990. George Bush sr, then president of the United States of America: "It's more than one small country. It is a big idea, a new world order".

Exactly 11 years later: Two planes each hitting a tower of the World Trade Center, the Pentagon attacked and all of this has marked the start of the New World Order.

The event allowed the governments of the west to build their empire according to the plans as layed down by the Project Of A New American Century, a think-tank which later provided several secretaries for the Bush Administration in 2000.

Where a lot of people still believe the government story of the evens of that tragic date, a recent poll showed that over 50% of New Yorkers believe that elements within the US Government was not only having fore-knowledge of the event, but actively let it happen.

911 has woken a lot of people up to the real scale of globalization and the move towards a fascist world government. The Internet has proven to be the new medium, where people go to find the real news.

Trusted websites have arised, and when it comes to explaining the events of september 11, 2001 one can easily speak of a complete 911 TRUTH MOVEMENT!

There is simply too much information that contradicts the official version, the conspiracy theory that the governments of the world tell the people of the world.

Where to begin, if you want to search out what really happenned?
